

Remember the good old days?

They weren't so good, were they? Textbooks, cookbooks, books for leisure... Packing for school or for a trip could mean an entire piece of luggage just for books.

Welcome to the 21st Century! Now, you can carry a small home library in your purse. With e-books loaded on a reader or PDA; you can read anywhere – even in the dark or a heavy rain, bookmark your page, change the font to be more comfortable for your eyes, and so much more! The good old days just got a whole lot better. Now, your reading for a month or more fits in the palm of your hand. Want to learn more about e-books?
